Enlist Your Dollars
Until the War IS WON!

OUR boys in the army and navy have consecrated their lives to the winning of the war. They are in the service of the nation until victory is won. Enlist your dollars in their support by buying Liberty Bonds. Make the enlistment term of your dollars equal at least to the period of service of our gallant sons.

Hold your Liberty Bonds. Don't exchange them for merchandise or for other securities which may be worthless. Don't sell them except under pressure of necessity.

Keep them in a safe place or have them registered in your name.

Hold fast to your Liberty Bond to enable our boys to hold fast to their entrenchments in France and to push the Huns across the Rhine.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Sunday Services.

All the Sunday Services will be held at the usual hour unless the local board of deal the prohibits all indoor gatherings on account of the "flu."

Should such a measure go into effect we will hold a Service on the church lawn Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A similar announcement is made concerning the Epworth League doings for Friday night. If unable to hold them indoors, meet outside the church.

The men of the church have given the church floors a good coat of oil this week, which greatly improves the looks of things.

The fifth annual Marion county corn show will be held in Salem the second week in December.

The plant of the Cottage Grove Ice company at Cottage Grove was completely destroyed by fire.

The forest service has closed a contract for construction of the Canyonville-Galesville link completing the Pacific highway.

County judges and commissioners of Oregon counties will meet in convention at the Multnomah county courthouse October 30.

Thirty-six militia companies, including national guard and Oregon guard have been mustered into state service aggregated in four regiments.

Lieutenant Leslie Orland Toose, one of the Toose twins, known throughout the state, was killed by a German sniper in France on September 28.

The fall season for fishing at Astoria this year has been poor. Fairly good catches of silverides are made off the mouth of the river, but little is doing on the inside.

Korby Miller, of Medford, has received appointment from Representative Hawley for admission as a cadet to the United States military academy at West Point.

Because of the danger from Spanish influenza, the hog and dairy show which was to have been held at Hermiton last week was postponed. The show may be held later.

The public service commission has granted a franchise under the boom act to the Gresham Lumber company, allowing it to operate on Drift creek, Alsea river and Alsea bay in Lincoln county.

Hood River will have to go mayorless, according to present indications. H. L. Dumble, who has been mayor declares that he will not run for reelection, and there are no prospective candidates in sight.

A. J. Hollingsworth, of Portland, is making an examination of records for the Oregon Forest Fire association to clear the records of the state forest department from errors relative to the ownership of timber lands.

There are 99,765 registered voters in Multnomah county qualified to exercise their franchise at the general election next month. The total registration of men is 97,526, while the registration of women totals 2,239.

A report of the Oregon highway to be built by the state is being made by the Oregon highway commission.

of rodent work for the United States biological survey, with a view to extermination of jackrabbits, squirrels and gophers, which are doing much damage.

For the first time in the history of Coos bay there was a double launching Saturday. The Burnside and the Fort Leavenworth, Ferris type 3500-ton Emergency Fleet corporation vessels, went into the water at Marshfield and North Bend.

Owing to the death of Malcolm Dunaway, Senator Chamberlain will be called on to nominate a candidate for appointment as midshipman to Annapolis. Applications may be sent to Senator Chamberlain by boys from 16 to 18 years of age.

The state highway commission has agreed with County Judge Anderson, of Clackamas county, to draw the plans and do the preliminary engineering for a new bridge across the Willamette river connecting Oregon City and West Linn.

Details in preparation for the survey of labor and material resources of Oregon, to be made at direction of the council of national defense, are nearing completion. Questionnaires on which the desired data will be recorded are being forwarded from Washington.

Professor H. D. Scudder will go to Washington early in November to represent the Oregon Land Settlement commission and confer with the secretary of agriculture and the secretary of the interior regarding the part this state may take in caring for returning soldiers.

Exclusive of permanent improvements at the eastern Oregon state hospital, and the estimate of the biennial expenses for the state training school for boys, state institution heads have prepared budgets showing that they estimate their expenses for 1919-20 at $2,529,122.30.

Seven fatal accidents, besides 553 non-fatal accidents, were reported to the state industrial accident commission during the past week. The fatal accidents were as follows: Richard Minkenna, Homestead, miner; Klamath Billy, Siletz, lumbering; Thomas Enright, North Portland, flour mills; John Gefferson, Cornucopia, miner; Charles Balcom, Oregon City, paper mills; Hjalmar Swanson, Seaside, lumbering; W. W. Fletcher, Nevereth, logging.

Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, has been appointed by the state council of defense to serve as state historian for the purpose of compiling a permanent official record of Oregon's participation in the war, including the military and naval career of all Oregonians. To facilitate the work Miss Marvin will appoint a county historian for each county in the state.

The state board of control is confronted with the peculiar fact that it costs more to accept fuel for nothing than to buy it. An offer has been made of some slabwood near Albany, which the board may have gratis providing the hauling is done by the state. It was determined that it might cost more to deliver it to the institutions than if it were purchased at a point nearer.

Resuming a custom followed in years past for the development of newly reclaimed lands along the gradually receding Tule Lake shore in southern Klamath county, the department of the interior will lease to settlers approximately 7000 acres of land early in November. Bids for these parcels of land, ranging in size from 47 to 100 acres, will be received at the United States reclamation office in Klamath Falls until November 6.

When voters write on the ballot at the general election next month the name of their choice for justice of the supreme court to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Justice Moore they should also make a cross in the little square at the left of the name. This will insure the validity of the vote cast, although the law does not require the making of the cross. Attorney General Brown has passed on this point in an opinion to Clifford Hedges, district attorney at Oregon City.

That Sergeant C. C. Tripplet and Policeman Charles Smithers, of the state police, who have been in southern Oregon the past two months rounding up bootleggers, have themselves been frequent violators of the bootleg law, was a sensational development in the hearing of Policeman Smithers, arrested in a Medford apartment house charged with maintaining a public nuisance. Smithers pleaded guilty to the charge and to said to have made a complete confession implicating himself, Tripplet and other police officers.

War Emergency Course and Certificate
OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL

Owing to the scarcity of teachers the Oregon Normal School will offer a War Emergency Course of twenty weeks outlined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The course will begin with each of the terms commencing Nov. 16, 1918; Feb. 8, 1919; and April 12, 1919. The Superintendent of Public Instruction will consider it equivalent to the Teachers' Training Course and issue a certificate upon its completion valid to teach in the elementary grades for one year.

This course will be open to those who have had two years or more of high school work or its equivalent, and who are at least eighteen years of age.
